If you send our invoice to a solicitor or someone else for payment we would appreciate your advising us that you have done so. Please remember that you remain liable for payment of the invoice until this is paid in full. We will need to contact you again in regards to payment if the solicitor does not intend to payment.

If you intend to make an application for a D.W.P. Funeral Payment please be aware that if the application is successful any payment will normally only settle the funeral account partially. In such circumstance, or where an application is not successful, you accept full liability for any outstanding balance.

2. Deposits

We will require payment of all third party charges 72 hours before the funeral.

3. Estimates

The cost of the funeral arrangements on the Confirmation and Estimate form is an estimate only. You should be aware that you may be requested to pay more than the estimate when the funeral has been performed and all costs have been finalised, as a result of any extra services or changes to the arrangements which you request. We will advise you on each extra cost before going ahead.

4. External payments

As part of the funeral arrangements, you may have requested us to instruct other suppliers to provide services for the funeral. These services are listed on the Confirmation and Estimate form with an estimate of the cost for their services. As these other services are not provided by us we do not accept responsibility or liability for the supplier when he or she provides the services.

5. Valuables

We do not accept responsibility for jewellery or other valuable items that are left with us, particularly where they are displayed for viewing.

6. Payments

You will receive an invoice within seven days of the funeral and payment is due within another 28 days. We accept cash, cheques and bank transfers.

7. Interest

If our invoice is not paid as mentioned above we may charge interest at the rate of 8% per annum from the date of the invoice until payment is received. If the invoice remains outstanding we may transfer your debt to another company for collection.
